◆ PHANTOM !

An aerial photograph of a large harbor area, likely Poole Harbour in Dorset, England. The water is filled with numerous sailboats. Three labels with arrows point to specific features: 'Studland (South Haven)' points to a long, narrow island in the upper left; 'Sandbanks (North Haven)' points to a long, narrow island in the middle right; and 'Groynes in Poole Harbour' points to a series of structures along the shoreline in the lower left. The surrounding land is green and hilly, with some buildings visible near the water's edge.
